

Core C | Extended Response #1 – Edwards

Edwards' sermon entitled, "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God" takes a harsh, yet realistic approach to evangelism. Especially in today's society, is this type of approach helpful? Harmful? Is it necessary? Examine your own feelings in regards to a sermon preached in this manner. Do your feelings line up with scripture? Explain. Create a strong, persuasive paragraph that clearly communicates your point of view. Your paragraph should include a topic sentence and two properly integrated proofs. 200-250 words.

Remember – your extended response should include:

- a strong, persuasive topic sentence (first sentence of response)
- 2 properly integrated proofs (i.e. one Edwards quote and one Bible verse, or two Edwards quotes)
- a clincher sentence to sum up the paragraph
- a Works Cited page

*You should not write in first person (I, me). You can state your opinion without using first person. For example, rather than say "I feel that the method used by Edwards..." say "The method used by Edwards..."

*No be-verbs! Choose strong verbs!

*You will submit your Extended Response PDF via the Dropbox link on Mrs. Clark's Weebly page. You MUST submit a PDF of the ER to Dropbox BEFORE class on Wednesday. Don't forget to upload a copy to Turnitin, too! In addition, complete the Extended Response checklist and bring it to class on Wednesday.
